Abe's Honest Words: The Life of Abraham Lincoln

Ages 6-8

by Doreen Rappaport, ill. by Kadir Nelson
(Hyperion Books For Children)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

From the time he was a young boy roaming the forests of the unsettled Midwest, Abraham Lincoln knew in his heart that slavery was deeply wrong. The passion for humanity that defined Lincoln's life shines through in this portrait of a truly great American president. Narrated by Nicol Zanzarella and Trevor Murphy with music by Michael Bacon. Bonus Material - "Important Dates" and "The Gettysburg Address" (read by Trevor Murphy).

(Arthur A. Levine Books)

★ KIRKUS BEST PICTURE BOOKS OF 2015

★ NYPL 100 NOTABLE BOOKS FOR READING AND SHARING

★ STARRED BOOK REVIEWS IN BOOKLIST, KIRKUS, PW

This is the story of one brave family: Mildred Loving, Richard Perry Loving, and their three children. It is the story of how Mildred and Richard fell in love, and got married in Washington, D.C. But when they moved back to their hometown in Virginia, they were arrested (in dramatic fashion) for violating that state's laws against interracial marriage. The Lovings refused to allow their children to get the message that their parents' love was wrong and so they fought the unfair law, taking their case all the way to the Supreme Court - and won! Jovita Wore Pants

Ages 3-5

The Story of a Mexican Freedom Fighter

by Aida Salazar, Illustrated by Molly Mendoza. (Scholastic)

"Jovita dreamed of wearing pants like her brothers, Ramón and Luciano. She hated the way the big skirts that Abuela made her wear tangled around her legs as she scaled the tallest mesquite tree in Rancho Palos Blancos. She wanted to ride her horse Morongo and feel the wind curl her face into a smile. When her father and brothers joined the Cristeros War to fight for the right to practice religion freely, she wanted to help. Though she wasn't allowed to fight, that didn't stop her from learning the terrain and observing how her father strategized. Then tragedy struck, compelling Jovita to cut her hair, put on pants, and continue the fight. Disguised as a man, she commanded a battalion who followed her without question. The Little Wooden Robot and the Log Princess

Ages 4-8

Written and Illustrated by Tom Gauld
(Neal Porter Books)

For years, the king and queen have tried desperately to have a baby. Their wish was granted twice, when an engineer and a witch gave them a little wooden robot and an enchanted log princess. But there's just one catch: every night when the log princess sleeps, she transforms back into an ordinary log, and can only be woken up with magic words. The princess and her robot brother are inseparable, until the sleeping princess, mistaken for lumber, is accidentally carted off to parts unknown. Now it's up to her devoted brother to find her, and get them safely back home. They need to take turns to get each other home, and on the way, they face a host of adventures involving the Queen of Mushrooms, a magic pudding, a baby in a rosebush, and an old lady in a bottle. Narrated by Rosie Jones. Music by David Mansfield.

"Imaginations will be fired up by an evocative narration of the story... Background sounds include yowling cats and groaning monsters, and a haunting array of Spanish words fills the story." - AudioFile

"... (the narrator) delightfully yowls like los gatos (cats) and shrieks like los fantasmas (ghosts)... The wildly original illustrations float across the screen, or glimmer, as when the eyes of las calabazas (pumpkins) become 'beacons in the night'." - Booklist

"Just spooky enough for viewers who are ready for a bit of a chill, (the) book becomes livelier and even more suspenseful with eerie music and creepy creatures that fly... a must have." - Starred Review, School Library Journal

Lucky Ducklings

Ages 4-8

by Eva Moore, illustrated by Nancy Carpenter (Orchard)

★ PUBLISHERS WEEKLY, STARRED REVIEW

A true story about a mama duck and her five ducklings that had to be rescued from the town storm drain during an early morning walk. How three firemen and a pickup truck rush to their rescue makes for a vivid and exciting drama that children will return to over and over again. This delightful new classic has an inspiring environmental message. Narrated by Tavia Gilbert with music by Jon Carroll.

“...delightful, fast-paced...Clever sound effects fill the air as Pigeon swings from euphoria to exasperation...and ultimately to a climatic, screen-splitting tantrum... Triumphant strains of clarinet music play when (Pigeon) finally agrees to share the hot dog with his new buddy...”

– Starred Review, Booklist

“The exchange between the dramatic pigeon (voiced by Mo Willems) and the cucumber-cool duckling (Trix Willems) is hilarious. Trix’s voice—childlike yet sophisticated—provides a restrained and charming foil for Willems’ larger-than-life pigeon...a fun musical score accents the drama and serves as a delightful backdrop.”

The Rooster Who Would Not Be Quiet

Ages 4-8

by Carmen Agra Deedy, illustrated by Eugene Yelchin (Scholastic)

La Paz is a happy, but noisy village. A little peace and quiet would make it just right. So the villagers elect the bossy Don Pepe as their mayor. Before long, singing of any kind is outlawed. Even the teakettle is afraid to whistle! But there is one noisy rooster who doesn't give two mangos about this mayor's silly rules. Instead, he does what roosters were born to do. Celebrate the spirit of freedom -- and the courage of those who are born to sing at any cost. Both English and Spanish narrated by author Carmen Agra Deedy. Music by John McCutcheon. Animation by Cha-Pow!

The Sun is Kind of a Big Deal

by Nick Seluk (Orchard)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

Oh hey, guess what? The Sun never stops working to keep things on Earth running smoothly. (That's why it's been Employee of the Month for 4.5 billion years.) So why does the Sun get to be the center of attention? Because it's our solar system's very own star! This funny and factual picture book from Awkward Yeti creator Nick Seluk explains every part of the Sun's big job: keeping our solar system together, giving Earth day and night, keeping us warm, and more. In fact, the Sun does so much for us that we wouldn't be alive without it. That's kind of a big deal. Narrated by Emily Eiden, David de Vries, Lauren Ezzo and others. Music by Jack Sundrud. This Is the Rope

Ages 5-8

by Jacqueline Woodson, ill. by James Ransome (Penguin)

- ★ AUDIOFILE EARPHONES AWARD

The story of one family’s journey north during the Great Migration starts with a little girl in South Carolina who finds a rope under a tree one summer. She has no idea the rope will become part of her family’s history. But for three generations, that rope is passed down, used for everything from jump rope games to tying suitcases onto a car for the big move north to New York City, and even for a family reunion where that first little girl is now a grandmother. Music by Toshi Reagon.

Watercress

Ages 4-8

by Andrea Wang, ill. by Jason Chin

(Neal Porter Books)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

Gathering watercress by the side of the road brings a girl closer to her family's Chinese Heritage. Driving through Ohio in an old Pontiac, a young girl's parents stop suddenly when they spot watercress growing wild in a ditch by the side of the road. Grabbing an old paper bag and some rusty scissors, the whole family wades into the muck to collect as much of the muddy, snail covered watercress as they can. At first, she's embarrassed. Why can't her family get food from the grocery store? But when her mother shares a story of her family's time in China, the girl learns to appreciate the fresh food they foraged. Together, they make a new memory of watercress. Narrated by Sunny Lu. Music by Ernest Troost.

Written and illustrated by Jack Wong, (Scholastic)

★ ALA NOTABLE RECORDING

In expansive vignettes, we meet sandpipers, tannin-soaked lakes, the feeling of a small waterfall on one's shoulders. Artist and author Jack Wong has delivered an empowering, poetic modern classic that fills readers with the wonder and confidence needed to overcome their fears of the water. When You Can Swim invites children into the warmth and wonder of the natural world and its watery splendors. At the same time, children will experience the joyousness that nature's lessons teach us through its beauty. Narrated by Shannon Tyo. Music by Bruce Zimmerman.

Weston Woods' Multimedia Collection

All videos featured in this catalog include full public performance rights for school and library use, unless otherwise noted. Public performance rights are necessary for multiple screenings, public screenings or screenings for combined class groups and libraries. Admission may not be charged at public performances. These programs may not be duplicated or reproduced for any purpose, nor digitally or electronically delivered on any network unless written permission is obtained.

Digital delivery rights are available for selected titles. Please call your sales rep or Customer Service at 800-243-5020 for information and a quotation.

Videos which are annotated for home use may only be used in classroom settings consistent with U.S. copyright laws. These laws require use of the program in face-to-face instruction in conjunction with a curriculum lesson plan and may not be used for recreation, recess or reward.

ALL BOOK/CD PACKAGES WILL BE SENT UNCOLLATED AND WITHOUT BAGS.

Many customers have indicated they do not want poly bags. In order to reduce waste, we do not include them unless requested. If you prefer to receive your packages collated and/or with the poly bags, please check the appropriate box on the order form. We are happy to provide these FREE OPTIONAL SERVICES, HOWEVER, THEY MUST BE REQUESTED.

Books listed in this catalog are in print at the time of publication. However, please note that book suppliers have the option to put a book out-of-print at any time in accordance with demand. All books are AVAILABLE ONLY WHILE SUPPLIES LAST.

Study guides are available for all titles produced by Weston Woods, except for Author Documentary and Foreign Language titles. Guides may be downloaded for free from our website. See the title you would like for a link.

CAPTIONED VIDEOS — Weston Woods certifies that our closed captioning complies with the FCC quality standards (or Video Programmer Best Practices). This format contains captions of the narration plus descriptive text for the hearing impaired. Videos may be used with captions turned on or off. Please call customer service for a list of available titles.

CC/SUBTITLED VIDEOS — Videos described as CC/SUBTITLED Videos include BOTH closed-captioning and subtitles. The closed-captioning includes the descriptive text for the hearing impaired, while the video subtitles contain only the spoken narration and character dialogue for use as a reading tool. Subtitled captions are not highlighted as in our new Read-Along feature, as described in the paragraph here. These videos may be used with both types of captions turned on or off.

AUTOMATION KITS AND PROCESSING FREE ON ALL ORDERS OVER $200.

Full library processing is available for all Weston Woods' titles in this catalog. Complete cataloging and processing are based on Dewey Classification System unless otherwise noted by the customer (i.e. Sears Subject Headings and AACR2 and USMARC Bibliographic Standards).

Automation kits (MARC records, barcode labels and spine labels) and stand-alone MARC records are available for all Weston Woods titles, with a minimum charge of $15.00 per physical product order, and $28.00 per digital product order. Please contact your sales representative or customer service for a Custom Processing Form. MARC records can be sent via Email or CD. Printed labels and barcodes will be mailed separately. Depending on your specific requirements for additional processing, please allow an additional three weeks for fulfillment.

When ordering automation kits and/or MARC records solely, the Cataloging Order Form in this catalog MUST be attached to your order before your order can be processed.
